

American Wars: A Series of Programs for Fall 2022

Scholar:

Hosted in Partnership with Colorado Council for the Social Studies

Description:

- TAH and CO CSS will present a series of four - three online and one in-person - programs for the Fall 2022 school semester, open to any Colorado teachers. Each program will focus on separate American war, with documents selected to provide teachers with novel information about conflicts essential to understanding the development of American politics, society, and government during the 18th and 19th Centuries.
- All attendees of this free Seminars will be provided with copies of the agenda and documents reader. Attendees at the in-person programs will be provided with lunch and a certificate of participation.
- Click on the program titles for more details about each.

Programs

31 August 2022

The American War for Independence

Online

28 September 2022

The War of 1812

Online

26 October 2022

The Mexican- American War

Online

4 November 2022

The Civil War

In Person

Online programs will run from 4:55-6:10pm Mountain
Time (Colorado local)

In person program will run
during the normal school day; click the link for details